If you request to deal with us anonymously or pseudonymously, we will take reasonable steps to comply with your request if it is possible and lawful. However, if you choose not to provide us with your personal information, or it's incomplete or inaccurate, we may not be able to provide you with the goods and services or information you are seeking. If you are seeking to become a member, we will not be able to process your application if you do not provide the personal information sought.

We may disclose your personal information to our workers, contractors, consultants, government departments and agencies, and third parties who assist us in operating our business, third parties to whom you have agreed we may disclose your information, or as otherwise required or authorised by law. Our third-party service providers are too numerous to list, and they change from time to time, but may include payment processors, insurers, IT and technology service providers, event organisers, mail providers, and professional advisers. Some, such as technology service providers, may be located overseas in countries such as the United States of America, such as Google Analytics and Microsoft. If you are travelling overseas to a Girl Guides event, your information may be disclosed to our partner Girl Guides organisation located in the country to which you are travelling. You consent to this overseas disclosure and agree that by providing consent, APP 8.1 under the Privacy Act no longer applies, and we are not required to take reasonable steps to ensure that the overseas recipient does not breach the APPs in relation to that information.

Your personal information may also be disclosed to your parent or guardian, to Leaders and Managers whose role it is to supervise and assess you, and if you consent, to other members.

More detailed information about the types of personal information we collect from you, the way we use, disclose and secure your personal information, how you can access and correct that information, and how you can make a complaint about a breach of privacy can be found in our Privacy Policy, or by contacting us at:
